Merid

PAGES 1 TO 8

Ammiser.

PAGES 1 TO S.

OL XXXIII., NO. 5846.

HONOLULU, HAWAII TERRITORY, THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1901.-SIXTEEN PAGES.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

HOME RULERS

PLAY SENATE

Amusing Parody on

Doings of Legal

Session.

The extra session of the Legislature will be convened on Wednesday, May 8, 1901. Governor Dole issued a proclamation yesterday to this effect. He states that the Legislature failed to pass appropriation bills providing for payment of the necessary current expenses for carrying on the Government and meeting its legal obligations. The extra session will have for its sole object the con-

OUSANDS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN MAKE MERRY

darling brightness, and as rd into the heavens, sureen flower-decked and solitan population, the es worn by tiny Japse tots mingling pret-of the school, and the a pretty wreath of ers borne aloft at the marges, and well they rithout exception, the made an excellent atter of discipline, and would have done cred-Mers. As the various in position on the preparatory for the attractive, Even thus sers of cameras were place in the stand. to better opportunity awas next in evidence in the festival was given.

awkwardness pearance.

CO. rec

smile its approval songs, interword in medley: and to add its glorious completeness to the tropical beauty of the first great Sunflower Song" (by Mrs. Frear), were Mayday festival celebrated all interwoven, and as a few bars of the familiar airs were played to a sunflower song.

sideration of appropriation bills for the coming biennial period. Eight ex-Senators of the Territorial Legislature which finished its sixtleth lay on Tuesday night, met in the Sen-

(Photos by Rice & Perkins.)

ren took up the song. When the va- are deserving of much credit for their Thole, the effect was rious schools had marched to their showing. places the Territorial Band took its ing results, than that inspector general of schools; Professor the of which few counciliants of the Board of Education; J. K. Burkett, of Kauai; W. the equal. The Ha- W. Hall, of the Kilohana Art League, sere greatly in the and Mrs. William Montrose Graham, with tiny tots of the steps, and reviewed the procession, country. The better the schools, the slaces persuasion, and which reflected so much credit upon better will be the future people. The deminded the schools of the steps, and which reflected so much credit upon better will be the future people. demingled parentage, the Art League, under whose auspices Mayday festival has been observed in through, and when filled the driveways. Applause was If joined in the singing generously accorded each school as the columns marched to their places. The der a country that will go on for ages," furnish food for banners and kahilis carried were especially beautiful, the latter being ed, interspersed by songs from various oclock the march to made of gorgeous red lehua flowers. ock the march to made of gorgeous red lehua flowers. schools, the strains of song coming cia Arcia, Mary Anna Nahiaa. Anna School Band play the The blue and yellow colors of Puna- from various parts of the grounds as Tell, Helen Laa, Anna Fernandez, Eliz-School Band play- hou College made a brilliant showing. each school sang. strains of "I Will The girls of the college bore their ban-

The white, and wore yellow leis, their colthe offender being High School's special feature was its Manoa," syed native boy; handsome banner. The Molitili Pri- hao Seminary. The High School sang honoed and san- mary School bore a banner of the Am- "A Forest Ramble," by Franz Abt, and serens serene countererican shield with two eagles, the put the grammar and primary grades of the blouge, with a discussion of the serence of the series of the put the grammar and primary grades of the shield with two eagles, the put the grammar and primary grades of the blouge, with a discussion of the series of the series of the put the series of the seri biouse, with a drew's Priory was prettily represented Home. of mild a small by girls in white with great clusters of mild disturb- red flowers and red lels around their Queen and the beautiful Maypole grounds.

The pr busy during the hats. F. W. Damon headed the prowere kept cred- cession of the pupils of Mills' Institute. he was no hitch the Chinese pupils presenting a fine apfollowed the wreath with streamers of colored rib- yellow roses.

School Band with bons. Maemae School carried a beauthe two bands all tiful blue banner with a golden star. Maypole danced, tripped to their places and primary school dancers were all her classmates. With dancers were all her classmates, with out exception, the rest of the schools

It had been announced that Governor Dole would make an address, but he Superintendent of Public Instruction was indisposed, and could not attend. Atkinson, Mrs. Atkinson, T. H. Gibson, The program after the march, was inspector general of schools; Professor opened with "America," by the Territorial Band, the vast throng joining in the chorus.

other countries for many years, but we the but irrespective of The Capitol building lanais, steps and have never before held it. We will was the was the spirit of windows were through, and carriages continue to do so now for years, and I through and mindows were through, and carriages to come, we are all hope for centuries to come. We are all here as Americans now, and we are un-Musical numbers by the band follow-

"Hawaii," by E. A. P. Newcomb, was tests. Leis of maile and clusters of which, "Welcome My Woods," by Robtests. Leis of malle and clusters of which, "Welcome My Woods, by its and of all the validities were the pretty characterert Franz, was given by the Normal must that are to be kain! School girls were all dressed in public schools. "Daybreak," by G. A. The Brown-ups." The was next sung by Punahou Veazi Jr., was next sung by Punahou mischief cropped umn being one of the prettiest. The School pupils, and then came "Sunny the offender by the circle from the Kawalaby the girls from the Kawala-

the thousands of marched through entering at the some banners. The Normal School puttle pine tree, the some banners. The Normal School puttle pine tree, the throne had been the heads of the children by those bears, as the top of it being a a throng around the throne, and there was streamers, at the top of it being a a throng around the throne, and there was a pretty finale, in the shower of wearing red leis, carried several hand-of the bandstand, under the pretty lit-some banners. The Normal School puttle pine tree, the throne had been the heads of the children by those bears, the work ribbons of red, white and erected. The tree was trimmed in hind. thence to the blue, and wore red and white leis. The wreaths of purple and yellow, and the The children played games and made schools, about by schools, about tiny pupils of Manoa School received throne was a mass of purple magentas, merry until late in the afternoon.

The despecial applause. They were yellow the royal chair being overhung with a special applause. They were yellow the royal chair being overhung with a special applause. They were yellow the royal chair being overhung with a special applause.

The Mayday bearing the name of the school in gilt. as the band struck up the music, and structured Band bearing the name of the school in gilt.

Superintendent Atkinson made a who had been crowned by the dancers ciais, parents and friends, who contrib- ate chamber last evening at 6:40 o'clock brief address to the children: "Our but a moment before, led the dance, uted refreshments; members of the Art and went through the form of passing procession was gen- also of the Art League, were on the schools," he said, "are the pride of our with Miss Mary Hull, who represents the tiny tots of the steps, and reviewed the procession, country. The better the schools, the ed the minister of affairs. The dancers have been but a moment before, led the dance, uted representations the first the schools, the ed the minister of affairs. The dancers have been been but a moment before, led the dance, uted representations the first three dances. executed the figures prettily, their dark heha bands, the schools who took part readings. Every mother's son of them tresses flowing loosely and decorated in the singing. Mrs. Annis Montague were Home Rulers. The full strength with flowers. They were all pupils of Turner, all the scholars who turned of the Home Rulers, however, was not Kajulani School, and their names are Kaiulani School, and their names are as follows: Violet Jones, Mary Huli, out so willingly in the procession, and despite a liberal use of backs, tele-Martha Leslie, Clara McColgan, Hattle to all who contributed by their presphones and messengers, that recreant Kalili, Mary Kealakai, Elizabeth Danence and aid to make the first Mayday ex-Legislator could not be located duriel, Ewaline McGuire, Isabelle Quadros, Adeline Kahookano, Kealoha Aona, Ah Kiu, Lily Leialoha, Daisy Zerbe, Lu-> abeth Aholo. To Mrs. Mary Wood belongs the credit of drilling the girls for the dance, and to Mrs. Anna B. Tucker, that of arranging the school songs knives, dishes or napkins, and will call and there was every evidence that the played under the direction of Professor

When the dance was finished, Mrs. Annis Montague Turner sang "Ha- to Mi waii Ponoi" and "The Star Spangled ities. Banner," the school joining in the

This practically ended the program, and in a twinkling a lunch of sandwiches, cake and soda water was be-Then came the crowning of the May ing handed about in all parts of the

The pretty May Queen was escorted The pole was in the center of the to her throne, and little ones from all circular space reserved for the dance, directions ran forward with tributes of great crown of violets, marigolds and the managerial ability of the committees in charge of the splendid festival,

MAY DAY MOTES.

festival in Honolulu such a complete ing the evening.

W. W. HALL. For the City Improvement Committee of the Kilohana Art League.

If ladies who helped Mrs. Crabbe at to Mrs. Berger of the Associated Char-

The artistic success of the arrangements is due largely to the indefatiga-ble efforts of Mr. E. A. P. Newcomb, whose suggestions were followed out in nearly all the particulars. Mr. Newcomb formulated the plan by which the five thousand children were marshalled through the grounds and to their places without confusion, and he also designed all the banners, which added so much to the gayety of appearance and the artistic beauty of the proces-

Mrs. William Montrose Graham is well tion of leprosy and pulmon known and appreciated, as evidenced by the success of the Mardi Gras ball. Too much praise cannot be given to of which she was practically the manager, and to her may be ascribed the credit of many other successful affairs. When she was called upon to take charge of the Mayday festival she was equal to the occasion as usual, and to electrified when Russel said "No!" and The May Queen was chosen from taking the ends of the gay streamers, the left of the school in the school in the school in the plans.

The May Queen was chosen from taking the ends of the gay streamers, the may Queen was chosen from taking the ends of the gay streamers, the city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans. The city improvement committee of the patience and interest in the plans.

out, as "Oily Bill' White was absent,

The Home Rulers present were: President Kaiue, Senators Kalauokalani, J. Brown, Kanuha, Koahi, Russel, Kahilina, Nakapahu, There was not a Republican present. the Mayday festival have lost any Their desks were cleared of papers, on her, they may be able to identify six had quit work entirely. It was them among articles in her possession. noticeable that the mucilage bottles re-Food left from the festival was given mained on the Republican desks, while no sign of such a convenience could be seen on the Independent desks. These were promisculously packed away with the other belongings of > their users. Quietude reigned supreme, and the bills, one after another, were read, passed or otherwise disposed of without the formality of debate. Whenever a bill was up for action the word was passed along, and the entire eight voted the same way in all cases but one. Senator Russel killed the Board of The splendid managerial ability of Health bill providing for the disposipersons coming from other States and Territories. This was House bill 52, preventing afflicted persons of this character from entering the confines of the Hawalian Islands. The vote was called by roll, and the Senate was all turned around to take a look at the

(Continued on Page 2.)